

Worse than Yesterday

Motionless, no sign of life
Like a bug on its back
I feel helpless, I want to cry
No word comes out of my mouth

I still can see, I still can feel,
Am I insane, madness reigns my brain.
Please ease my pain.
Worse than yesterday, better than tomorrow

Full of fear, no light, no ground
On the way to hell.
Help me, please, wake me up.
Before my soul's for sale.

I still can see, I still can feel,
Am I insane, madness reigns my brain.
Please ease my pain.
Worse than yesterday, better than tomorrow.

Endless woe, no hope for relief.
I'm trapped in misery.
Bathed in sweat, I open my eyes.
Back from the dead again.

I still can see, I still can feel,
Am I insane, madness reigns my brain.
Please, ease my pain.
Worse than yesterday, better than tomorrow.
